

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Master's degree in nutrition or public health or public administration or medicine or rural development or MBA (regular) or any other relevant field along with 5+ years of relevant work experience;
- Experience in working with the rice Industry is an added advantage;
- "Project Management Professional", certificate is desirable;
- Good computer skills, including MS Office programs;

LANGUAGE:

- Fluent oral and written communication skills in English and Hindi is essential.

COMPETENCIES AND SKILLS

- A result-oriented approach and proven ability to think through complex issues to conceptualize, design and execute action plans, manage, track and coordinate complex multi-partner large-scale programs and work within tight timeline;
- Excellent team player with ability to work collaboratively, share information and build strong working relationships with colleagues and stakeholders from diverse backgrounds while focusing on impact and results.
- Maturity and presence required to effectively participate and contribute in meetings with senior government officials
- Knowledge of the health/nutrition field in the state and India;
- Ability to assess programmatic risks and develop and manage effective mitigation strategies;
- Strong leadership skills and ability to work independently and generate innovation;
- Ability to effectively represent the program in various fora.
- Good computer skills; including MS Office programs;
- Ability to work under minimal supervision;
- Ability to work under pressure

PROFESSIONAL CHARGES:

- Consolidated monthly remuneration of Rs. 1,50,000/-
-